What is “Nogaku”??
 “Noh” and “Kyogen” are collectively known as Nogaku. Noh is a performing art unique to Japan, said to be the world’s oldest form of drama still performed today. It was also Japan’s first traditional performing art to receive Intangible World Cultural Heritage recognition from UNESCO. Kyogen plays are comparatively dialogue-oriented, and tend to be comedies based on the everyday lives of the common people.

【The outline of the tour】

The tour can start from anyplace in Kanazawa you want and the guide will pick you up at there. You will take a luxury car or ride an E-Bike to Ishikawa Prefectural Noh Theater, and you can enjoy the scenery of Kanazawa while riding by the special local guide. You will watch the Noh and Kyogen at first at the theater. Next, you will be guided through the backstage and green rooms. Lastly, you can experience wearing the outfit of Noh and dancing Noh with the instruction by the real Noh performer. Of course, it can also be customized to suit the wishes of the tour guests. The local English/Chinese guide will accompany you on the entire tour. You can also choose an EV or an electric bicycle as means of transport instead of gas vehicles. Please make a reservation and join the tour!!
